A native of a little town called Opelousas, Louisiana, Lady Royale began singing at the age of three and has been honing her skills ever since. After her parents divorced, she and her mother moved to Baton Rouge and it is fate and destiny that has led her to current home of J7 Records. Known as the 'New Sound of the South', Lady Royale possesses a sexy unique and formidable vocal style with comparisons to R&B superstar Mary J. Blige and soul legend Aretha Franklin.

'Trax World Volume 1' is filled with a combination of dance tracks and ballads amidst passionate vocals and heavy-hitting raps. Lady Royale will be touring the nation promoting the album in late Spring 2007. The tour will include radio stations, in-stores, and many other personal appearances along with her regular concert schedule.

Producer Trax says, 'We aim to be a catalyst in the evolution of the music cycle. Music is the driving force of the ages thus creating legends and defining cultures. Creativity is the heart of this movement. Lady Royale is the forerunner of J7 Records, a legend in the making!'

Meet the newest addition to OGPR's roster - Baton Rouge's Lady Royale - and her rapping alter ego Miss Laweszeyana.

Download 'Do you Like' ft Lil Keke

Like many great R&B vocalists, Lady Royale grew up singing in church - something she has done since the age of three. That, coupled with the fact that she is niece to famous New Orleans Blues singer Ernie Kador, means that music is in her blood. It is what she has always wanted to do.

The harder-edged, MC side of Lady Royale came about later in life and perhaps as a result of the constant fights the darker color of her skin threw her into growing up. She had to be tough.....

Lady Royale's vocal stylings are a mixture of gospel greats like Mahalia Jackson and Shirley Caesar to whom she was always compared, and secular songstresses like Aretha Franklin and Mary J. Blige, whom she was not encouraged to listen to, but grew up studying and admiring. Her rap persona takes on the confidence and swagger of TI and the animation of Ludacris.

An introduction to J7 Records' in-house producer, Trax during her Senior year of High School saw the two bonding and then recording almost immediately and Lady Royale would more often than not head straight to the studio from school. Whilst waiting for her turn on the label's release roster, Lady Royale went on tour, opening up for Lil Flip and Pastor Troy but was back in the studio the minute she returned.

The result is her debut album, TraxWorld: Volume 1 which features platinum MC Mike Jones, Houston street legend Lil Keke and of course her own emceeing skills as Miss Laweszyana. The album is set to drop in late first quarter 08 on J7 Records.

The first single Do You Like ft. Lil Keke is the perfect, soulful showcase for how well Lady Royale has studied those female vocalists that paved the way before her, rounded out by that Houston street lyricism for which Lil Keke is known so well; the perfect blend of what the Gulf Coast region brings to the table. A download link for the single has been provided below.
